Policy of the college on student grievances and ragging cases

As per recent UGC regulations, guidelines of Supreme Court, Government of India, Government of Maharashtra and our affiliating University, we also ensure the Grievances of students and all stakeholders should be speedily redressed by which the ambience of the college would be free from discrimination, harassment and retaliation.

In continuation of above policy, grievance cell is constituted at college level for examination related issues. This cell looks after all grievances related to internal as well as university examination.

College level mechanism for handling student grievance

1. Awareness programmes such as classes, notices, public announcements etc. related to examination.
2. Communication of special instruction related to examination among faculties and students..
3. Accept grievances related to internal as well as university examination from students.
4. The grievances are resolved by taking required follow up from concerned authorities of college and university.
5. Any irregularity found for concerned grievance that should be reported to the Principal.
6. The Principal is authorized to take proper action if a person found guilty.
